

Moving from Ordinary to Extraordinary..

Early Childhood Conference

Daring leaders create cultures of belonging

Bookings – <http://bit.ly/TASCONF>

- Anthony Semann
- Colin Slattery
- Heather Barnes OAM

Two Day Conference

- Fri 25th & Sat 26th October
- Tram Sheds Function Centre

Bookings at:

<http://bit.ly/TASCONF>

E: glendhuchildcare@gmail.com

Day 1: Workshop: Leading the NQF in Practice

Friday 25th October 10.00am-4.00pm

Heather Barnes OAM

ACA members $235/ Non-members $295

Specifically for Early Childhood Teachers & Educators

- Supporting children to be researchers and advocates for their own learning (QA5)
- Using assessment for learning to document children's learning (QA1)

Day 1: An evening with Anthony Semann – Reflections on Leadership

Friday 25th October: 6.30-9.00pm ACA members $115/ Non-members $145

For Providers, Management, Assistant Directors, ECT, Team Leaders

- Treat your management team to an informal evening with Anthony Semann as he explores a range of topics relevant to survival at the top! (QA7)
- As the world becomes more complex and our roles match this complexity, we need to stop, reflect. then act on how we sustain ourselves and celebrate our achievements.

Day 2: Making your way through the NQS in style

Saturday 26th October: 9.00-4.30pm ACA members $350/Non-members $395

9.00 – 9.15am	Acknowledgement of Country, open and welcome
Keynote address	Anthony Semann, Semann & Slattery	Reflective Practice - a catalyst for change This session requires us to think deeply and commit to deep reflection with our colleagues, explore, unpack and debate the challenges & opportunities which await us.
• Break out Session 1	Anthony Semann	Is there anything to fear about the NQS? Should we sit and worry about what might happen? How do we move from the ordinary to the extraordinary? How do we maximise outcomes for children and ensure quality? In this presentation fears will be put aside, and possibilities forged.
• Break out Session 2	Colin Slattery, Semann & Slattery	Always a professional from start to finish What are the expectations around professional behaviour? And what are the risks of not being professional? Reconstruct what it means to be professional.
• Break out Session 3	Heather Barnes OAM	Exploring the excellent themes of the NQS - strive for more This session will focus on team empowerment of interpretation of the themes of growing from exceeding to excellent.
Keynote address	Colin Slattery	Emotional Intelligence- the key to success How intelligent are you? Exploring the power of EI and where it fits in practice while unlocking the key to success.
1.15-1.45pm	Lunch
Keynote address	Heather Barnes OAM	Being intentional with children's learning - tools for educators to support children being intentional learners and active researchers.
• Break out Session 4	Anthony Semann	Repeat Is there anything to fear about the NQS?
• Break out session 5	Colin Slattery	Repeat Always a professional from start to finish
• Break out session 6	Heather Barnes	Repeat Exploring the excellent themes of the NQS - strive for more
Open discussion	Anthony, Colin, & Heather	To finish, have your questions answered by our three professionals! Do you have any questions regarding elements of NQS? Rules or regs? Ask away!!!
4.30pm	Close

The day will offer keynote presentations and breakout sessions suitable for new educators through to management level, something for everyone to be inspired by.

For queries, please email glendhuchildcare@gmail.com